

Visiting Micro/sys

Welcome! Micro/sys, Inc. is located at 3730 Park Pl., Montrose, CA 91020, in the foothills north of Los Angeles. The closest airport is Burbank, CA (BUR), which is about a 15-20 minute drive to Micro/sys. Los Angeles International (LAX) is southwest of Micro/sys, and is about a one hour drive to Micro/sys. We are northwest of Pasadena, CA, just a few minutes from the famous Rose Bowl.

We suggest that you use Burbank airport, if you want to avoid driving through the central Los Angeles freeway system.

Driving From Los Angeles International Airport (LAX)

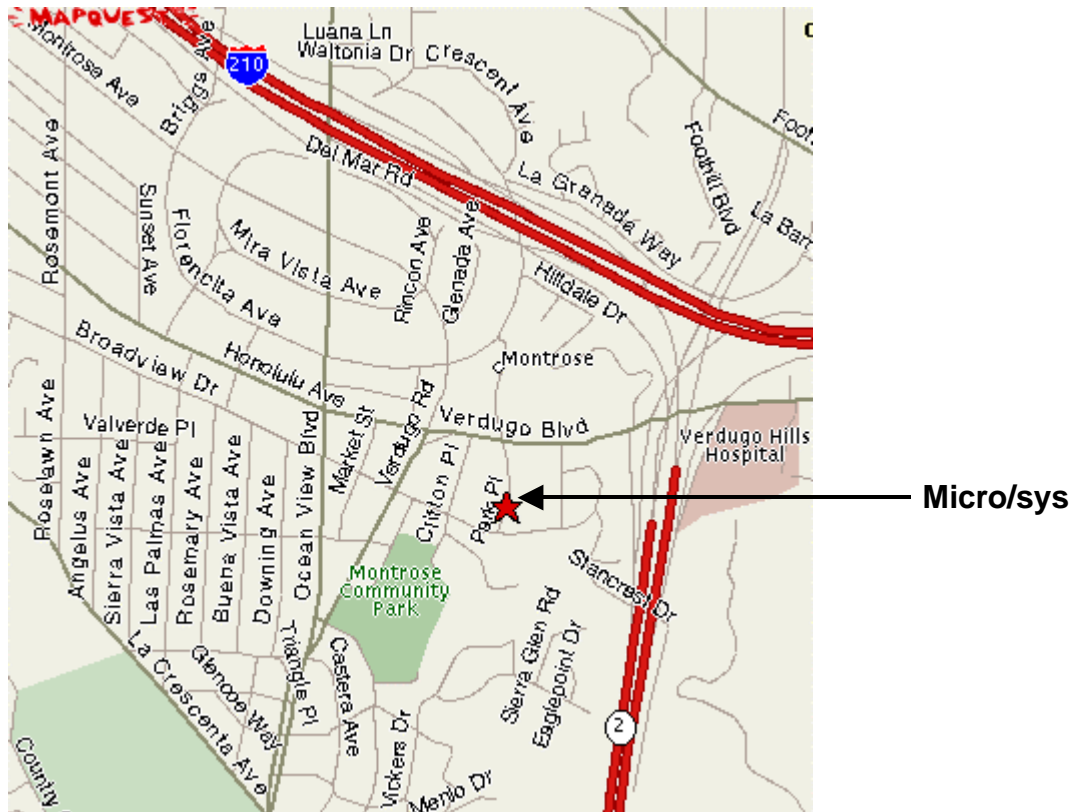

Take Interstate 405 north to the US 101 freeway. Take 101 East, and when it splits, take the 134 freeway option (left lanes). Take 134 East to State Highway 2 North (double green line on map). Take 2 North and take the Interstate 210 East connector road. Before the connector road merges into the 210 freeway, there is a Verdugo Rd. offramp. Exit on Verdugo Rd., turn left at the signal at the bottom of the offramp. Go down Verdugo Rd. to Park Place, and turn left. Micro/sys is at 3730 Park Pl.

Hotels

Although there are no hotels in Montrose proper, there are many hotels in the general Glendale, Burbank, and Pasadena area. Burbank has a Hilton at the airport, and a Holiday Inn close by at “Media Center”, which is full of shopping and dining. Glendale has a Hilton and numerous other choices. Pasadena has a Hilton, a Marriott, a Doubletree, and numerous other choices. Universal City, the site of the Universal Studios Tour and “Citywalk” shopping and dining center, adds about 10 extra miles to the drive to Micro/sys. Universal City has a Hilton and a Sheraton.
